ONLINE COLOUR COURSE

We are living in extraordinary times.

Here is an opportunity to use this period, to reignite and improve your painting practice.

Join me on this online / live call painting course, from the comfort of your own home.

This course is a deep exploration of colour, relevant to painters of ALL levels, which will give you an understanding of colour, to take into your painting future in any context.

Because of the uncertainty regarding how long this period will last, the course is divided into segments.

Part 1 starts on Friday, May 15 at 10 am (UK time/11:00 am Europe) and it will set us off with an introduction to 3 key colours: Red, Blue and Yellow.

This segment will take place on Tuesdays & Fridays from 10 to 12 am via Zoom call for a total of 6 sessions and will finish on Tuesday, June 2nd at the same times.

Cost: £125/£70 (concessions) / €140/€80 EUR (BACS or PayPal)

Upon signing up, I will send you a list of materials and instructions for payment.

For those who sign up before Tuesday, May 12, I will arrange a 20 min Skype/Facetime, one to one video call to go through your set up, equipment and materials to get you ready before the course.

What you will get from this course:

- I will give you individual guidance, feedback and suggestions relevant to your style and approach.
- Answers to any questions you may have in between sessions.
- Help with tools, materials, equipment and set up to make sure you can get the best out of this course with what you have available and most likely, give you tips for future work. If you sign up soon, we will do this via Skype or similar for 20 min, before the course.

- You will also, get feedback from the group, which is always a wonderful goldmine of material to help your painting move forward.

- If you join Parts 1 & 2, you will get to experiment more loosely and paint more considered complete paintings.

- You will gain CONFIDENCE and a solid UNDERSTANDING OF COLOUR to serve as a base for future work for time to come.
